At the request of Congressman Victor L. Anfuso (D., N. Y.) interviewed [redacted] Arrangements were made for him to be interviewed further by Mr. [redacted] of Personnel.

Interviewed [redacted] who works in the office of Congressman [redacted] He was interested in a job involving legislative liaison or possibly other openings in the Agency. He left a Form 57 which was forwarded to Personnel for routine handling.

The DCI furnished his corrections of the Johnson Subcommittee transcript and authorized appropriate persons in Defense to have a look at the transcript either in the Agency or by courier arrangement in the Pentagon where a CIA courier would take the transcript over and wait while it was being read and then return it to the Agency.
